

Hello Fellow Whoopsters! We have been busy little bunnies here at Whoops Bunny Headquarters. We have just updated our site and have our boutique up and running. We can't wait to show you our launch range!

We now also have a blog link on our site and will be sharing photos, whoops stories and the behind-the-scenes excitement here.

We also thought we should tell you the fun story behind the Whoops Bunny brand. Read on!

bunny...bunny...bunny...bunny...whoops bunny...whoops bunny...bang...bang...bang

Once upon a time a little bunny had a 'whoops'. The bunny was jumping across the fingers on a hand and whoops...almost slipped off. The bunny and the whoops were captured forever in this rhyme and with a hop, skip and a whoops, Whoops Bunny was born.

Like that bunny, anyone, at any age, anywhere in the world, can experience a whoops! It's a part of what makes life...life! And with whoops-a-plenty under our belts, the bunnies here at Whoops Bunny HQ strive to develop products to deal with any whoops life throws at you.

When it comes to style and quality though, a whoops just won't do. To pass the 'whoops test', our products must be hip & contemporary with a sprinkling of high jinks...but always functional!

So go on...celebrate the whoops, we'll be right there with you.
